MISS CAVELL DIED FORGIVING THE SOLDIERS WHO SHOT HER

French Woman Executed at Liege in Same Manner That British Nurse Was Put to Death.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—It became known to-day that another woman had been shot to death by German military authorities in the same manner that Miss Edith Cavell, the British nurse, was executed. The victim was Louise Frenay.

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Amsterdam credits the story to the newspaper Telegraaf.

"The Telegraaf states to-night," the correspondent telegraphs, "that the Germans executed a French woman, Miss Louise Frenay, at Liege, forty-eight hours ago. She was shot to death by a firing party purposely aimed at her and she was hit in the legs. The officer then shot her through the head with his revolver."

"The Telegraaf says the same thing happened in Miss Cavell's case. She was fired at by a party of twelve, but only one bullet touched her, and it did not kill her. It was after this that the officer of the firing party drew his revolver and, putting it to her ear, fired."

"The priest present at the execution was overcome with horror and is now suffering from nervous breakdown. 'I have no hesitation in saying that the execution of Miss Cavell evoked consternation among the people of Holland. The feeling is that it will probably do more damage to the German sympathies in Holland than any happening during the war.'"

In military executions the officer commanding the firing squad is usually ordered by the court martial to fire a single shot into the condemned person's head, after the firing squad has done its work, both to make death doubly sure and to make certain that there shall be no suffering should the bullets of the executioners have failed to cause instant death. This rule may account for the report that the officers in charge fired into the women's bodies.

A despatch to the Express from Rome says:

"I am told the Pope has instructed Cardinal Hartmann to protest to the Kaiser against the execution of women as being against the principles of Christianity and humanity."

The shooting of Miss Cavell has

ITALIAN STEAMSHIP REPORTED TORPEDOED

Said to Have Been Sunk by Austrian Submarine, But Name Is Not Given

PARIS, Oct. 23.—The Temps publishes a despatch from Geneva giving an Athens report that an Austrian submarine has sunk an Italian steamship.

The name of the vessel is not given.

PRINCE MAY BE BLINDED BY DAUGHTER OF CAPTAIN

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 23.—Prince Leopold of Coburg, a nephew of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, was burned with acid and wounded with a revolver by a woman friend, the daughter of a Viennese police captain, according to a despatch from Vienna.

It is stated that the woman committed suicide by shooting. The condition of the Prince is most grave and he is likely to lose his sight, it is said.

3,000 RAILWAY MEN JOIN FREIGHT STRIKE

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Freight handlers of the New York, New Haven and Hartford and the Boston and Albany Railroads joined the Boston and Maine Railroad employees in a strike here to-day for an increase in wages and pay for holidays.

Union leaders claimed that 3,000 men employed by the three roads were out.

RECTOR'S WEDDING HALTED BY GIRL'S THREAT OF SUIT

Rev. Mr. Wilson Was to Have Married Daughter of Louis C. Clark To-Day.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 23.—Threat of a breach of promise suit prevented the marriage to-day of the Rev. Charles C. Wilson, rector of the Church of Our Savior, Rosindale, Mass., and Miss Mary De Forest Clark, daughter of Louis Crawford Clark of New York and this place.

The invitations had been sent out and all was in readiness for the ceremony at All Saints Church to-day, when a postponement was announced with the explanation of Mr. Clark that his daughter was ill. Rev. Mr. Wilson admits, however, that it was Miss Laura Louis Johnson's threat of court action that caused the postponement.

"I do not understand an action has been brought," he said, "but I have been threatened with one."

"Will you marry Miss Clark eventually?" he was asked.

"You may say the wedding has been postponed," he replied, "until a date that has not been agreed on, or indefinitely. Just say postponed, that is all."

Bishop-Coadjutor George Y. Bliss, of the Diocese of Vermont, a friend, said to-day:

"The Rev. Charles C. Wilson received a letter at his home in Rosindale, Mass., about Oct. 11, from Guy E. Horton of Burlington, representing a Minneapolis girl, demanding reparation of an alleged breach of promise to marry. Mr. Wilson then desired the postponement of his marriage until the action that has been threatened could be heard and the matter cleared up."

Miss Johnson, who now lives in Minneapolis, was for some time up to two years ago a student in the University of Vermont, and since then has been frequently in Burlington, where Dr. Wilson was, until his resignation last spring, assistant rector of St. Paul's Church, and in charge of All Saints Church, which Mr. Clark built in memory of his wife.

WOMAN DROWNED DIVORCED WIFE OF RICH NEW YORKER

Body Found in North River Identified as That of Mrs. Kathen Wilcox.

The body of the woman found yesterday in a ferry slip in Hoboken was identified to-day as that of Mrs. Kathen Wilcox, the divorced wife of Frederick P. Wilcox, general manager of the New York office of the International Silver Company, of Meriden, Conn., a $20,000,000 corporation. Frederick P. Wilcox lives at No. 59 West Eighty-fifth Street with his sister, but was at his country place in Bangall, Dutchess County, to-day and could not be reached by telephone.

Mr. Wilcox, according to his sister, was married about fifteen years ago. His wife left him after eighteen months and brought suit for divorce, which was granted twelve years ago. Mr. Wilcox, his sister said, never saw his wife again and did not know where she lived beyond that she was supposed to be in New York.

Through an effort to hide the identity of the dead woman friends of the family unwittingly created a wrong impression. This was that she was the divorced wife of George H. Wilcox of Meriden, President of the International Silver Company and a cousin of Frederick P. Wilcox. Investigation established that George H. Wilcox is happily married.

The identification was made by James North, President of the American Silver Company, New Britain, Conn., an uncle of Mrs. Wilcox. In making his identification Mr. North made no mention of the name of Mrs. Wilcox's husband.

It is believed by the Hoboken detectives who have been investigating the case that Mrs. Wilcox jumped from a Lackawanna ferryboat as it was entering or leaving the slip. So far as is known there are no marks of violence on the body.

At Volk's morgue in Hoboken, where the identification was made, information regarding it was withheld until the Hoboken police ordered the morguekeeper to reveal the facts. He then did so unwillingly. Finally it was learned that a slip of paper found on the woman's body contained

SUICIDE, IS BELIEVED MAN WHO WAS TO WED

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—A man believed to be Harvey Herman Jr. of No. 38 Fountain Street, New Haven, Conn., was found dead in a hotel here to-day. A hose was fastened to a gas jet and the other end was found in his mouth. It was evident that he had committed suicide. The man had registered as J. H. Husted of Trenton, N. J., but in his pockets were found a number of letters addressed to Herman at the New Haven address.

Herman, who was to have been married to Miss Edith T. A. Todd of Waterbury, Conn., disappeared a few hours before the hour set for the ceremony. The police of many cities had been searching for him for a week or more. No reason for his act could be assigned by the local authorities.

AUSTRALIAN CHAMPION WINS FROM CLABBY

SYDNEY, New South Wales, Oct. 23.—Les Darcy, the Australian middleweight champion pugilist, to-day beat on points Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind., one of the American claimants to the world's middleweight championship.

The bout was held at the Stadium here.

The name of North and his address. A telegram sent to New Britain last evening brought North to Hoboken to-day. He said he did not know where Mrs. Wilcox had been living in New York. She was forty years old and was wealthy in her own name, he added.

According to the police the body apparently had been in the water about a week. Over the telephone to-day Mrs. North at New Britain said to The Evening World:

"Mrs. Wilcox was born in New York. Her maiden name was North."

WASHINGTON HEARS AMERICAN WAS PUT TO DEATH BY VILLA

Another Report Is A. L. Miller, a Colonel on Mexican's Staff, Was Shot, but Escaped.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—American Consul General Cohen at El Paso wired the State Department this afternoon of a report that Gen. Villa had executed A. L. Miller, an American, holding the rank of colonel on Villa's staff.

The report was unconfirmed and the consular agent said other information was that Miller had been shot in the leg but made his escape.

A dragnet was thrown out to-day by United States troops and Secret Service men on the Mexican border in the search for Mexican outlaws active in recent raids. A number of arrests have been made.

Officials admitted to-day that the border situation is acute. Steps to check the raiders are under the personal direction of President Wilson. He has given Secretary of War Garrison and Attorney General Gregory authority to resort to drastic measures.

Because of the inception of the raids on American soil and the American influence believed responsible, many rumors regarding the border conspiracies were in circulation to-day. One report was that Villa was instigating the attacks upon the American troops in reprisal for this Government's recognition of Carranza and a hope of forcing American intervention across the boundary.

Another rumor was that Villa had secured new American financial backing for further revolt. Still another was that Felix Diaz was fomenting a new revolution in co-operation with Zapata.

Government agents are closely watching activities of Mexican leaders in this country. Arrests are certain if tangible evidence can be secured that either money or arms is being sent to any anti-Carranza faction.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 23.—The Twenty-eighth Infantry, stationed at Dallas for the last ten days, began entraining to-day for the Texas border in accordance with an order from the War Department. Col. E. H. Plummer is in command. The trains were expected to leave late this afternoon. One battalion will be stationed at Hurlington, twenty-eight miles north of Brownsville. Two battalions will be placed at Mission, sixty miles up the Rio Grande from Brownsville.

10,000 MEN IN THE RANKS JOIN BIGGEST DEMONSTRATION EVER HELD IN NEW YORK

Glittering Pageant Marches to Park Plaza, Where Women Form Tab-leau as 30 Bands Unite in Playing Patriotic Air.

Thousands of women clad in white from head to foot marched up Fifth Avenue from Washington Square to Fifty-ninth Street to-day for the cause of Votes for Women. The sharp autumn wind which whipped their banners and the brilliant autumn sunlight added to the lively brilliance of a spectacle which has never been equalled in demonstrations for women's suffrage.

Women whose names are to be found all through the Social Register marched side by side with working mothers with babies in their arms. A large proportion of the marchers were young girls who would not be old enough to vote were they enfranchised. They made up in beauty what they lacked in years and were cheered all along the crowded Fifth Avenue sidewalks.

Hundreds of women who came to march were rejected at the assembly stations because they were not in costume. The all-white prevailed, though many detachments were brilliantly uniformed in colors. The spectators laughed in good natured sympathy with the struggles which the wind caused the marchers. Unruly skirts demanded attention from those who bore the militantly inscribed banners. Nearly all the brave laughter with a single standard to keep it from being swept to the street. None gave up the struggle.

The parade ended with a concert of thirty bands and a giant chorus singing patriotic songs at the Central Park Plaza. There were several battalions of men in sympathy with the cause who were noisily greeted by the people along the curb.

WOMEN GATHERED EARLY AT STARTING POINT.

Hours before that the women began to gather at the headquarters of their various organizations.

The beautiful young society matron, Mrs. Leonard Thomas, was head of the parade, leading the International Division and preceded only by the police platoon and the Seventh Regiment Band and Fife and Drum Corps. Mrs. Thomas held aloft the white and gold banner of the International Suffrage Alliance and directly behind her were four other society women—Mrs. Malcolm Duncan, Mrs. C. C. Bauer, Mrs. John Minturn and Mrs. Willard D. Straight—carrying blue and gold banners. The next in line was Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, President of the Alliance, and behind her were twenty-five groups of women, thirteen to a group, representing the countries which belong to the alliance, arranged in alphabetical order. Australia, which came first, was led by a six-foot beauty from Brooklyn, Miss Charlotte Higley. Two large blue, gold and white banners were carried at the head of each group, and the women all wore cockades and carried wreaths adorned with the colors of the respective countries.

The Suffrage float, designed and donated by Mrs. John W. Alexander, were in this division. The name of
